- All hostels are required to maintain “Silence Zone”* norms between 2200 – 0600 hrs as per guidelines of Delhi Govt. (https://www.dpcc.delhigovt.nic.in/noise_standards#gsc.tab=0). Hence any unnecessary movement/activity must be avoided to prevent any kind of noise/disturbance during this time*.
- Any absence from the hostel for more than 24 hrs, or those requiring mess rebates, must be informed in writing, in advance, to the respective caretaker.

Rules pertaining to visitors/guests (including parents/family)

- Any non-resident of a hostel, but currently registered as an IIT Delhi student, must be duly registered in the hostel entry register as a visitor/guest by a current resident of that hostel. Without this, any visitor will be treated as an unauthorized visitor.
- Non-residents of a hostel, but currently registered IIT Delhi students, including residents from different hostels in the campus, are allowed to visit each other ONLY in the designated common areas of the hostels till 0200 hrs in the night. The designated common areas are identified by House Working Committee of the hostel.
- Visits by any guests, for any duration, in hostels require prior written approval/permission as below. Further, at the time of the visit, visitors must be duly registered in the hostel entry register as a visitor/guest by a current resident of that hostel. Without this, any visitor will be treated as an unauthorized visitor.
- It is mandatory to seek prior approval from hostel warden for any guest(s) for a period up to five days. Warden may deny permission if the situation so warrants. For longer stay period, permission is to be sought from the Associate Dean Hostel Management.
- Guests may be allowed to stay, with prior written permission and for limited time (see above), only in guest accommodations available in the same hostel or other hostels – this depends on the availability of guest accommodation in hostels.
- For (a) security reasons and (b) safeguarding privacy of hostel residents, guests are NOT allowed to enter individual wings/rooms in hostels. Guests may meet with residents ONLY in DESIGNATED (common) areas in hostels.
- Visiting hours for guests to meet with residents in hostels are 0800 – 2000 hrs.
- Unauthorized visitors in hostels must be reported to the IIT Delhi Security Unit – they may be handed over to the Police, if required.
- A general guideline for ensuring well-being and maintaining safety of hostel residents
    - In case any resident has to stay out for some work after 2300 hrs, it is advised to do so after making proper entries in the entry/exit register with details like name, entry number, purpose, name of the laboratory/computer centre, time of leaving the hostel and expected time of return to the hostel. On return, they may update the same register with actual time of return.

No noise guidelines (https://www.dpcc.delhigovt.nic.in/noise_standards):

- Day time is reckoned in between 6.00 AM and 10.00 PM
- Nighttime is reckoned in between 10.00 PM and 6.00 AM
- Silence zone is defined as areas up to 100 meters around such premises as hospitals, educational institutions, and courts.
